Civil Contempt Petition No. 192 of 2001

Hon'ble Irshad Hussain, J.

None responds on behalf of the petitioner.

Heard Sr. K.P. Upadhyaya, learned standing counsel.

Perused the counter affidavit and also the annexures filed therein. A chargesheet was sent to the petitioner which could not be served on him personally as he had evaded service on him even by registered post. The respondents then had to resort to publication of the charge-sheet in news-paper dated 25.05.2001, whereas the order was passed on 28.05.2001 and this fact was not brought to the notice at the court by the petitioner. Considering this it is evident that the compliance of the order of this court was made by virtue of charge sheet having been issued in the above manner . Although the petitioner was not entitled to such an order in his favour by suppression of the fact of issuance of charge sheet by publication. It is thus obvious than the compliance of the court's order has been made.

The petition is therefore dismissed. Notice is discharged.
